

Military Health Security Summit
June 16-17, 2019
University of Sydney, Australia
Co-hosted by ADF and INDOPACOM

Day1

Theme:
Role of militaries in Global Health Security (GHS)

Objectives:

Raise awareness of the role of militaries in GHS, engage regional leaders, build relationships, gain a common understanding of why and how militaries contribute to shared GHS goals, advance regional partnerships

Session 1: 0900-1100 Welcome and Morning Plenary Session

- High-level scene setter; how military missions align with and contribute to shared GHS goals
- Keynote addresses by Air Vice-Marshal Smart, RDML Tripoli

Morning Tea: 1100-1130

Session 2: 1130-1300: Panel Discussion

- Specific examples of military support to civilian authorities during crises from several countries

Lunch: 1300-1345

Session 3: 1345-1430 Breakout Session

- First run of two concurrent afternoon breakout sessions on the role of militaries in humanitarian assistance and National Frameworks for collaboration between the military and civilian sectors.

Session 4: 1430-1515 Breakout Session

- Second run of two concurrent afternoon breakout sessions on the role of militaries in humanitarian assistance and National Frameworks for collaboration between the military and civilian sectors.

Afternoon Tea: 1515-1540

Session 5: 1540-1625 Breakout Sessions

- Participants will have choice of joining one of 4 concurrent breakout sessions. Topics will range from disease outbreak differentiation, Biosurveillance integration, CBRNE triage, and biosecurity policy for the military.

Session 6: 1630-1700 Afternoon Plenary

- Summary of breakout sessions
- Brief scene set for next day

Welcome Reception 1700- 1900

Day 2

Theme: Advancing military-civilian cooperation in global health security

Objectives:

Advance military-civilian cooperation in global health security to advance shared Health Security goals, further understanding of the need for common legislative frameworks on biosafety and biosecurity

Session 7: 0900-0930 Opening remarks and moderated discussion

Session 8: 0930 – 111 Panel Discussion

- Civilian-military cooperation in GHS through government action
- Panel discussion on government action to promote military-civilian cooperation from several countries

Morning Tea: 1115-1145

Session 9: 1145-1300 Panel Discussion

- Scoping Regional Challenges and collaborative opportunities

Lunch: 1300-1400

Session 10: 1400-1500 Breakout Sessions

- Participants will have choice of joining one of 4 concurrent breakout sessions. Topics will include infectious disease burden in the Pacific, a pandemic workshop on small pox, developing shared legislative and regulatory understandings with civilian partners, and medical countermeasures decision support tools.

Afternoon tea – 1500-1530

Session 10: 1530-1630 Afternoon Plenary session

- Summary of day and breakout sessions
- Closing Remarks by Air Vice-Marshal Smart, RDML Tripoli
  - o Outbrief Preparation
  - o “Statement from the Summit”